VICHY, France, Feb. 11.—Travelling in a special train of sixteen cars, Generalissimo Francisco Franco crossed the Spanish border into France today enroute to Italy for a conference with Premier Benito Mussolini. Franco was accompanied by his foreign minister and brother-in-law, Ramon Serrano Suner. Reports in Vichy said that Franco's ultimate destination was somewhere near Genoa. At noon, his train was crossing the Gard department of France. Reports of the forthcoming meeting led to a flood of rumors in Vichy.

Major Axis Move
Rome, Feb. 11.—A major Axis war move involving Spain was hinted in the Italian press today coincident with persistent reports that Generalissimo Francisco Franco is in San Remo for a conference with Premier Mussolini.

In a dispatch significantly dated Madrid, the authoritative Rome newspaper Giornale D'Italia said: "We are nearing completion of a preparatory phase of the precise and unchangeable Axis military program."

"In addition, there will be one or more grand-style complementary actions."

To some extent they have been definitely prearranged. But they are partly contingent upon developments in the various theatres of warfare.

This somewhat cryptic analysis of the situation was not amplified.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: In Madrid the Falangist (Fascist) party newspaper Arriba published an editorial reaffirming the Spanish people's approval in advance of any action that General Franco decides upon. "Above all we Spanish," the paper said, "will demonstrate complete unanimity and joyful obedience to General Franco." The paper urged "rigorous fidelity" to the country and its leader.)

Thursday And Friday Will Be Dollar Days In New Castle Stores

One of those real carnivals of bargains, which thrifty buyers of the New Castle Community will await with genuine eagerness will occur on Thursday and Friday of this week, when New Castle's most enterprising merchants will join in another New Castle Dollar Days sale.

Forty-eight of the city's leading merchants will cooperate in this event by offering a wide variety of seasonable merchandise at reduced prices and already, these merchants are getting ready for the event, marking down quality goods to prices far below their usual selling price.

Dollar Days have been an institution here for a number of years and the citizens of the community have become accustomed to an outstanding sales event, one that they know will result in a big savings to them, for they know that they will receive dependable merchandise at prices which in many cases will seem almost ridiculous.

Some real sacrifices are being made by the merchants in reducing their stocks at this time, and folks residing in the local district will do well to scrutinize the offerings, which will be found advertised in the columns of The News this week. So get ready for another one of those great sales, which the merchants here will conduct on Thursday and Friday, February 13 and 14, and benefit by the greatly reduced prices which will be offered at this time.

Willkie To Testify On 'Lease-Lend' Bill During Afternoon

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—With official Washington agog over the prospect of a dramatic plea for the lease-lend bill by Wendell E. Willkie late today, senate leaders told President Roosevelt that they will jam the bill through the senate by March 1.

Willkie, fresh from his personal survey of England was switched to the post of the final witness for the administration before the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

Planning to close hearings today so that the all-out British aid measure can be rushed to the senate floor, the committee decided to first hear Dr. James Conant, president of Harvard university, and dynamic Mayor LaGuardia of New York before Willkie.

DEAD AT HOSPITAL

Going to the home of her son, Robert Leo Bryson, aged 38 years, of 309 1/2 Knox street, shortly after 9 o'clock, Monday evening, Mrs. Robert E. Bryson, of 310 Knox street, found the home full of smoke, and making her way to a second floor bedroom, found the bed smoldering, and the son lying unconscious on the bedroom floor. Mrs. Bryson summoned help and immediately across the street. An ambulance was called and he was taken to the James Memorial hospital, where he was pronounced dead. Dr. T. F. Nugent, county coroner, stated that Bryson's death was evidently due to suffocation from the dense smoke which came from the burning bedclothes.

City firemen were summoned by an alarm from box 62 and quickly extinguished the blaze, damage amounting to around $15 being done, they reported.

The fire is believed to have been caused by Bryson smoking a cigarette, while lying in bed.

Robert Leo Bryson was born July 25, 1903, in New Castle, son of Robert E. and Mary Egan Bryson. He was a member of St. Mary's church. Surviving are his wife, Anna Jackson Bryson; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Bryson, one daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Lenz of Bedford, O., and Mrs. Josephine Vasco of Canonsburg, Pa. The body has been removed to the A. Darrell Burke funeral home, 319 North Jefferson street, where the family will receive friends this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Seeking destruction of Germany's vital synthetic oil plants, British bombers last night carried out a six-hour attack on the city of Hanover, the air ministry announced today.

Despite unfavorable weather, 90 per cent. of the participating aircraft reached their selected objectives, it was said.

Smaller detachments of the royal air force lashed out at oil installations and docks at Rotterdam, causing explosions and fires visible for many miles.

Airdromes Attacked
Two airdromes in Holland also were attacked, coincident with new raids on Boulogne, Cherbourg and Ostend. Four British planes were lost in the extensive operations.

The Hanover attack was concentrated in the industrial area, where fires started by early units of the attacking force guided late arrivals to their target. By the time the last raiders left, it was said, fires "too numerous to be counted" were raging throughout the bombed area. While the R. A. F. maintained its almost ceaseless activity, Nazi night raiders dropped a few bombs on eastern and southeastern England. It was stated that four of the attacking British planes had been lost.

EDITOR'S NOTE: A Berlin announcement claimed 12 British planes were shot down when they penetrated German territory during the night.

Coming as a pleasing surprise to more than 900 people at the Boy Scout banquet in the Cathedral Monday night, was the announcement that the camp mortgage of $1800, a debt that has been hanging over the Lawrence County Boy Scout Council since 1925, had been satisfied.

The mortgage was brought forward and Louis B. Round and Charles W. Carbeau with the aid of several scouts, ignited a fire by friction and burned the receipted papers. It was also announced that money to make this ceremony possible had been raised in a recent drive among local business men and industrial firms.

Name Is Changed
After giving a history of the camp, Ralph F. Davis, commissioner, made it known that John M. Phillips of Pittsburgh, after whom the camp was named, had asked that the name be changed. After a bit of conference, the name was officially changed to Lawrence County Boy Scout Camp.

The banquet was part of this week's celebration of Boy Scout Week, marking the 31st anniversary of scouting in this country. Before the dinner was served, Mrs. William Caldwell sang "God Bless America" (Continued On Page Two)

Jones' Resolution Transferred To New Committee

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Feb. 11.—A resolution seeking the ouster from the legislature of Rep. Don Wilkinson, (R) Luzerne, rested today with the house judiciary general committee following its transfer from the rules committee, to which it was originally committed.

The resolution, introduced by Rep. Presley N. Jones, (D) Lawrence, was transferred at the request of Leo A. Achterman, (D) Monroe, rules committee chairman, and majority floor leader.

The resolution seeks an investigation into allegedly improper conduct by the Luzerne county representative.

CAIRO, Feb. 11.—A new British pincer drive against Eritrea was reported today after British forces occupied the port of Taclal and the town of Karara south of the Eritrean border.

(Editor's Note: British authorities in London said that with the capture of Taclal in Libya, British shipping in the Mediterranean will now be less liable to attacks from Italian and German planes. Capture of the Fascist base, they declared, would enable British planes to protect shipping in that area and correspondingly reduce the risk.)

In Eritrea, Taclal and Karara were captured after considerable fighting by British forces which advanced southward along the Red sea coast from the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan.

Legislature To Speed Action On Emergency Relief Tax Program

HARRISBURG, Feb. 11.—The administration's $184,000,000 special emergency tax program for relief will be started on its way through the legislature today for enactment.

The eight measures, first enacted in 1935 by the Democrats, were reported out of committee last night and were slated to receive first reading today, second reading tomorrow and passage to the senate next week, possibly Monday, for concurrence and final enactment.

The Republican-sponsored measures were in the first tax bills reported out this session. Along with them came out two measures to bring municipal utilities under P. U. C. supervision.

These 10 house bills were the first to appear on the lower chamber's calendar today. The senate had no calendar, having disposed yesterday of its sole bill, a measure providing for an 11 3/4 mill tax rate for Philadelphia and Pittsburgh school districts. The bill was approved and forwarded to the house for concurrence.

Willkie Departs Before Pickets Reach Airport

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Wendell L. Willkie escaped a picket line by a few minutes today when he departed from LaGuardia airport to testify before the senate foreign affairs committee on the administration's lease-lend bill.

Willkie's plane had barely left the runway before about 10 young men and women appeared with banners reading: "We Hate War—Do You?" "America Comes First—Do You Want to Plough Under Every Fourth American Boy?"

Apparently the pickets, members of the National Republican Builders, Inc., thought that Willkie's plane was leaving later than it was scheduled.

(BULLETIN)

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Members of the Rumanian legation in London have been summoned home to Bucharest following Great Britain's severance of diplomatic relations, it was understood this afternoon.

The Rumanian charge d'affaires called at the foreign office, presumably to ask for passports.

Extension of the war to Rumania, Bulgaria and even to Turkey was widely predicted in London today as a result of Britain's severance of diplomatic relations with the Rumanian government.

At the same time, increasing German activity in the under-box Balkans was reported in messages pouring into the British capital.

Authoritative British quarters felt the Germans are preparing at least for a strong military demonstration in the Balkans, the primary object of which, it was believed, is to bring pressure on the Greeks and thus ease the troubles of Premier Mussolini's legions in Albania.

May Bring Japan In

Another interesting angle was the widespread belief in London that the latest European developments may shortly bring Japan into the picture. Authoritative circles said they thought Germany may "compel" Japan to enter the war, and that this may be synchronized with Germany's anticipated offensive in Europe this spring.

It was believed in London the Nazi plans call for German occupation of parts of Bulgaria, including Sofia, extending down to the Greek frontier.

When this is accomplished, it was believed, the Reich will call on (Continued On Page Two)

Police Say Krivitsky Was Suicide

Washington Scene Of End Of Life To Man Who Gained Fame In Soviet FOUND DEAD IN CAPITAL HOTEL

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Washington police said today that suicide had ended the spectacular career of Shmuel Ginzburg, a Ukrainian who 42 years ago was born in a little town in Poland, to rise to world fame under the Soviet name of Gen. Walter G. Krivitsky, only to die in the nation's capital under the name he had chosen for himself, Walter Prokoff. The once-famed chief of the Russian military intelligence service for Western Europe, was found shot to death late yesterday in a downtown Washington hotel, a 38-calibre pistol lying close by.

While Louis Waldman, Krivitsky's New York attorney declared that the general was a victim of Russian secret police, the OGPU, Krivitsky's friends were beginning to agree with the police that the case was suicide.

Coroner A. Magruder MacDonald withheld a "suicide" certificate at Waldman's request, but all authorities declared that further investigation would reveal nothing more than self-destruction.

Waldman said that Krivitsky had left New York Tuesday or Wednesday on his intention of going to Charlottesville, Va., to look for a farm where he could live with his wife Sonia and his seven-year-old son Alex.

Krivitsky left three notes, one in Russian to his wife and son saying he wanted to live, "but it is impossible," one to Waldman in English, asking him to take care of his family and one in German to Suzanne Lafollette, a famous left-winger, also asking her to help his family.

LEGISLATURE TO SPEED ACTION ON TAX PROGRAM

Introduced in the General Assembly. An additional 96 were introduced in the house last evening and 22 in the senate.

All of the emergency taxes were reported out by the Democratic-controlled house ways and means committee without amendment. Majority Leader Leo A. Achteman, Monroe, said the Democrats did not expect to make any revisions in the bills. Minority Leader Robert E. Woodside, Jr., Dauphin, said the Republicans would introduce an amendment from the floor exempting cigarettes sold to soldiers from the two-cents-a-pack state tax.

A bill carrying out Gov. Arthur H. James' budget recommendation for a $14,500,000 deficiency appropriation this biennium for relief was introduced in the house by Woodside. The $193,000,000 already appropriated this biennium is expected to run out about March 5 and the additional funds would be used to finance the public assistance program until the opening of the new biennium on June 1. The governor has recommended $131,000,000 for the next two years.

Deficiency Appropriation

The new relief measure is the second deficiency appropriation for public assistance, $71,000,000 having been added by the 1940 special session to the $122,000,000 originally appropriated in 1939.

Bringing to approximately $208,000,000 the relief budget for the present biennium, the new relief expenditures will be obtained from the following sources: $64,000,000 by transfer from the motor license fund, thus bringing to $43,400,000 the amount borrowed this biennium from that fund; $5,000,000 in anticipated excess revenue; $3,000,000 in bonded funds; and $100,000 cash balance in the general fund.

Numerous other appropriation measures were introduced without administration or party sponsorship by individual members. George W. Dolan, (D) Carbon, asked for $5,000,000 for distressed school districts for the next biennium, while Robert J. Cordery, (R) Lackawanna, requested $3,000,000.

Three measures were introduced to strengthen Americanism among teachers and state and other employees. A senate bill would make it mandatory for teachers and pupils to salute the American flag, while a house measure would amend the school code to permit the dismissal of teachers who refused to require their pupils to salute the flag. Another house bill would force the dismissal of state and local government employees convicted of subversive activities.

Post 282, Ellwood City, presented an American flag and a council flag to the scouts.

Memorial Service

Rev. A. M. Stump, former council president, conducted a memorial service for the council members who have departed since last year. He honored: Lord Baden Powell, founder of scouting; Judd Turner, Ellwood City; Frank Fischer, New Castle; and Albert Klingensmith, New Castle.

The annual surprise and one that everyone awaits anxiously to hear, was the presentation of the Silver Beaver award. Dr. R. C. Lutz was the scoutmaster honored with the award this year, and in a ceremony with the following local Beavers taking part, he was adorned with the Beaver badge: Fred L. Rentz, Dr. G. S. Bennett, L. B. Round, Ralph F. Davis, W. G. Ayers, Nelson Runyan, Jack Pearson, Rev. A. M. Stump, C. W. Carbeau and Irwin Ropp.

Speaker Of Evening

Speaker of the evening was William J. Night of Scranton, who was introduced by his personal friend, John J. Finnessy, local council executive. Mr. Night took the present undesirable foreign situation and explained how scouting would help prevent such a situation developing here.

He said in part: "The forces of evil have engulfed this country as they have already engulfed most of Europe. Enviously they covet our freedom and American way of life. Hungry they long for the prosperity we have achieved and they plot to possess themselves of the treasures for which they lust, while they gorge themselves on the fruits of their spoils. They plan to seize control of the very institutions that have made this country great."

Claiming that military preparedness alone is not sufficient, Mr. Night stated: "It is not the old men of the Nazi and Fascist countries who have been the cause of this world disaster, but the youth of yesterday, who have been led and directed by men whose thinking is warped by their own evil desires and ambitions."

Mr. Night delivered a challenge to the men who are denied the privilege of serving their country by reason of family responsibilities or years, by saying: "You men, I offer a rallying flag for national defense—the flag of scouting! Enlist now for defense of all that has made this country the country you love! One boy in five is able to enjoy the privileges of scouting! The other four are prevented from doing so because you men are unwilling to share the privileges you enjoy. It is not young men alone that scouting requires as leaders. The greater need is for men who through maturity and experience can help these boys of 12 and more to learn 'our way of life'."

Mr. Carbeau spoke a few words in response to the speaker, after which Rabbi Norman H. Diamond led the group in the pledge to the flag. Rev. Father W. F. Galvin pronounced the benediction.

WILLKIE TO TESTIFY ON 'LEASE-LEND' BILL DURING AFTERNOON

White House with President Roosevelt, with whom he conferred before leaving for London. The invitation to visit the White House again was made last night.

The decision of senate leaders to try to bring the measure to a vote by March 1, it was authoritatively reported, grew out of insistence by Mr. Roosevelt for speed.

With high officials talking three weeks ago of an anticipated crisis in Britain in 60 to 90 days, the administration was said to be urging speed to brace British morale for the anticipated shock of a desperate attempt at invasion by Nazi forces.

The big senate caucus room was sure to be jammed for Willkie's appearance. His promised appearance aroused more excitement than testimony of any other witness since J. P. Morgan, the financier, appeared before a senate committee and a midjet was plumped in his lap.

Republican leaders, many of whom are bitterly fighting the bill, awaited with interest Willkie's testimony.

Greece to make concessions to Italy and cease hostilities, in the hope Greece will acquiesce and thereby enable Germany to bring similar pressure against Turkey.

Rumania And Bulgaria With Axis

The British now regard Rumania and Bulgaria as lost to the Nazis, but it is believed and hoped that the Greeks, supported by all available British help and spurred by their own successes against the Italians, will reject the German demands.

More than 20 German divisions are now reported in Rumania in various guises—"carpenters," etc.—and reports reaching London from usually reliable sources say approximately one German division has been crossing the border into Bulgaria daily for the past few days.

British circles still think that a German move in the Balkans may be linked with a Nazi attempt to invade England and simultaneous mass air attacks on the two British fleets in the Mediterranean—and that all this will coincide with a Nazi attempt to make Japan move in the Far East.

One report, from Istanbul to the Independent French News agency in London, said the Germans now are concentrating important motorized troop units along the middle Danube river between Calafat and Turnu-Severin, Rumania, and before the Bulgarian town of Vidin.

In addition to the 23 persons taken to hospitals, more than a score of others received minor injuries. They were treated at the scene by physicians and nurses in ambulances from five hospitals.

The policeman was crushed to death when the second blast rocked the dwellings as he was attempting to reach trapped occupants. The explosion set fire to gas seeping through ripped-up paving and sent up a shower of debris that buried three other policemen, all of whom were dug out unhurt.

C. D. Of A. Court Will Have Dinner

Mrs. Ida Suber Is Chairlady For Dinner Event On Monday Evening, February 24

Reports from various committees were heard and business matters were discussed, Monday evening at the Catholic Daughters of America meeting, Court Teresa Irene No. 231, held in the K. of C. Home, North Jefferson street.

Plans were made for a full course dinner to be served on February 24. Lecturer, Mrs. Anne Mulcahy has chosen Mrs. Ida Suber in charge of this social meeting.

Mrs. Hazel Sewald is chairlady for the dinner meeting, and her aides are: Mrs. Mary Brown, Mrs. Catherine Gallagher, Mrs. Clara Thomas, Mrs. Mary Geddis, Mrs. Mary Maher, Mrs. Mary Hagan and Mrs. Edna Wadlinger. Mrs. Martha Sullivan is in charge of the dining room, and her assistants are Mrs. Anne Mulcahy, Mrs. Evelyn Woods, Mrs. Marie Jones and Mrs. Ruth Miller.

In addition to the dinner, which is to be served at 6:30 o'clock, a patriotic program has been arranged, with Mrs. Suber in charge. Other activities were planned, and miscellaneous club winners were Mrs. Helen McCann and Clare Duff.

March 10, is the date for the next regular business meeting.

LOVELY PROGRAM-TEA FOR FINE ARTS GROUP

Most entertaining and interesting was the program-tea given Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ross D. Rosenberger on Maryland Lane, Waino, when she had as guests a large representation of the Fine Arts department of the Woman's club, who assembled for their regular meeting of the month.

After a brief routine period, Mrs. Paul Walsh presented Mrs. William J. Caldwell, who delighted with three lovely soprano solos. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Kathryn Nessler Allen.

The review of the afternoon, given by Mrs. A. B. Fankhauser, was an autobiography entitled "The Inky Way" by Alice Higgins Rice. She sketched in a most pleasing manner the life of the interesting author of the much read book, "Mrs. Wiggins of the Catbag Patch".

At the close, tea and dainty refreshments were served from a prettily appointed table, the valentine motif predominating in all details. Mrs. John Elliott, president of the Woman's club, poured, and assisting co-hostesses included the following: Mrs. Verne Dufford, Mrs. Earl McKissock, Mrs. L. P. Hauschild, Mrs. A. M. Shumaker, Mrs. S. E. Patterson and Mrs. J. C. Sylling.

The next meeting for the Fine Arts group will take place on March 17 in the home of Mrs. J. Glenn Berry, Hazelcroft avenue.

Women's Label League
Members of the Women's Union Label League will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Trades and Assembly hall.

After the regular business routine, a social hour will follow.

EVENING BRIDGE AT FIELD CLUB THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Patterson will be hosts Thursday evening to members of the New Castle Field club, when they gather to launch a new series of "evening bridge parties". Play will begin at 8:15 o'clock, and following the awarding of prizes to honor score winners, a repast will be served.

MRS. W. E. McKEE IS EVENTS '06 HOSTESS

An informal meeting for the Current Events of '06 was held in the home of Mrs. W. E. McKee on Crawford avenue Monday afternoon with upwards of 15 responding to roll call. Each gave the name and author of a late book.

At the close of a short business period, current topics were discussed, relating timely subjects now making headlines in the papers of situations here and abroad.

On February 24, Mrs. E. H. McNeen of 138 Fairmont avenue will receive the group for a similar session.

LEGISLATIVE WOMEN PLAN FEBRUARY MEET

Members of the Legislative Department of the Woman's Club will meet with Mrs. W. L. Nesbitt on Leasure avenue, Monday afternoon, February 17, for an interesting program.

Mrs. Clarence Patterson will lead the discussion dealing with "National Defense" on this date.

Honored On Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McClay of the Ellwood City road entertained a number of friends and relatives at their home Sunday afternoon. The hostess served a dinner in honor of the fourth birthday anniversary of her son Robert Leroy.

Valentine decorations were used, and the table was graced with a splendid large birthday cake.

Mrs. William R. Phillips and Mrs. Margaret Anderson assisted in the serving of the dinner.

The honored guest was the recipient of some lovely gifts.

CURRENT CLASS HAS MEETING ON MONDAY

Mrs. John Emery of Lincoln avenue entertained the Current Events class in her home Monday afternoon with the usual routine opening activities. Current topics were discussed and the president, Mrs. Leslie Wilson, presided.

Plans are being formulated for a "Washington Birthday party" to take place on February 24, in the form of a 1 o'clock luncheon, the final details to be announced. Serving on the committee are Mrs. Louis Gordon, chairman; Mrs. Carmi Glover, Miss Nora Hough, Miss Pearl Johnson, Mrs. Jesse N. Kert and Mrs. Charles G. Long.

The next regular session is scheduled for Monday, March 10, with Miss Pearl Johnson hostess.

REBEKAH CHAPTER TO HAVE BIRTHDAY EVENT

Announcement of their birthday dinner to be held Monday evening, February 24, was made when members of the Rebekah chapter, First U. P. church, gathered Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Burr Rogers, Carlisle street. The dinner will be at 6:30 o'clock in the church and Rev. J. Calvin Rose, Second U. P. church pastor, will be the speaker.

Mrs. C. H. Young opened last evening's meeting, after which the program, consisting of the review of five booklets, was presented. Mrs. H. C. Dinsmore was the leader with Mrs. R. W. Dickey, Mrs. L. C. Hughes, Mrs. K. C. Steele and Mrs. H. D. Hanna also participating. Mrs. J. Clyde Gilfillan, president, had charge of the routine session.

Refreshments were served at the close by the hostesses, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Robert Newell and Miss Harriett Smith. Mrs. J. J. Fishburn was a special guest.

Officers will take place at the next regular meeting on March 10.

Marino-Owoc

In St. Joseph's church, Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, Miss Dorothy Marino, of Neshannock avenue, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marino, became the bride of Joseph Owoc, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Owoc of Liberty street.

The vows were exchanged before members of the immediate families, with Rev. Fr. Peter M. Schirra officiating. For her wedding the bride chose a black and white ensemble, street length, and her bridal corsage was of red rosebuds.

After a short wedding trip to Pittsburgh, the couple will reside at 504 Park Way. Mr. Owoc is employed at the Shenango Pottery.

Brisco Club

Mrs. Joseph Conti will receive the Brisco club February 16 in her home on Phillips street.

TEMPLE ISRAEL YOUTH GROUP HAS ASSEMBLY

Youth Group members of Temple Israel held its second annual inter-faith dinner Sunday evening in the assembly room of the Temple to which each member invited a friend of a different faith.

Plans are being formulated for a "Washington Birthday party" to take place on February 24, in the form of a 1 o'clock luncheon, the final details to be announced. Serving on the committee are Mrs. Louis Gordon, chairman; Mrs. Carmi Glover, Miss Nora Hough, Miss Pearl Johnson, Mrs. Jesse N. Kert and Mrs. Charles G. Long.

The next regular session is scheduled for Monday, March 10, with Miss Pearl Johnson hostess.

OAKWOOD GARDEN CLUB HOSTESSES THURSDAY

Oakwood Garden club members will meet Thursday, Feb. 13, with Mrs. Michael Heckert, on McClelland avenue, with Mrs. Clayton Hoffmaster, co-hostess, for an interesting program.

A paper reviewing "The New Roses" will be given by Miss Pearl Atkinson, and other features will be valuable to the membership. Business will be conducted by Miss Elizabeth Taylor, with roll call being followed by a valentine exchange.

LOCAL RESIDENTS AT SALEM, OHIO, WEDDING

Miss Jennie Marshall, William Marshall, James Marshall, Robert Marshall, and Mrs. David Marshall, all of this city, have returned from Salem, O., where they attended the wedding of Miss Margaret Marshall, McCulloch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. McCulloch of Salem, O., who became the bride of Walter Bennett Null, II, son of Walter B. Null of Pittsburgh.

The event was brilliantly celebrated in a charming candlelight ceremony on Saturday evening in the First Presbyterian church in the presence of a throng of guests. The vows were exchanged at 7:30 in charge of Rev. R. D. Walter, pastor, who was assisted by Edgar Lawrence, a cousin of the bridegroom.

Included in the group of eight attendants of the bride was Miss Anne Marshall of this city, who was first bridesmaid.

Following a reception in the church chapel, the bride and groom departed on a southern wedding trip. They will make their home in Pittsburgh upon returning, where he is associated with the Libbey-Owens Illinois company.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

FIRST DAYS OF BABY ABE LINCOLN

Dennis Hanks, a nine-year-old boy, was the first, besides the parents, to hold Baby Abe Lincoln. Dennis was an adopted boy, taking on the family name, Sparrow. One hundred thirty-two years ago, early on Sunday morning, February 12, Tom Lincoln walked to the Sparrow home, two miles away, and told them, "Nancy's got a baby." Dennis raced down to the Lincoln cabin. Next day Dennis asked if he might hold the baby. The mother told him as she put the tiny creature into his arms, "Be careful, Dennis, for you air the first boy he's ever seen." And, as told by Carl Sandburg (Harcourt Brace & Co., N. Y., 1926):

"Dennis swung the baby back and forth and kept up a chatter about how tickled he was to have a new cousin to play with. The baby screwed up his muscles of its face and began crying with no let-up and Dennis turned to Betsy Sparrow, handed her the baby and said to her, 'Aunt, take him. He'll never come to much.'"

Interest In Books

When Baby Lincoln began creeping his floor was the bare ground. I wonder if his mother had trouble keeping him from eating dirt as do some modern mothers who live in a house with floors. There is no record that Abe was an eating problem or that he ever had temper tantrums.

Dennis Hanks has handed down some information about Abe's interest in books when Abe was about 14. "Abe used to say, 'The things I want to know are in books; my best friends is a man who'll git me a book I ain't read.'"

John Hanks, who worked in the fields with adolescent Abe Lincoln, said: "When Abe and I came back to the house from work, he used to go to the cupboard, snatch a piece of corn bread, sit down, take a book, go to his knees up high as his head, and read. Whenever Abe had a chance in the field while at work, or at the house, he would stop and read."

Sandburg relates: "He liked to explain to other people what he was getting from books; explaining an idea to some one else made it clearer to him. The habit was growing in him of reading aloud. When he studied books his lower lip stuck out, for which he was bandied. This habit remained with him."

From Lincoln's own writings we have the following, of great significance to parents and adolescent students.

Tried To Work Out Problems

"I can remember going to my little bedroom, after hearing the neighbors talk of an evening with my father, and spending no small part of the night trying to make out what was the exact meaning of some of their, to me, dark sayings. I could not sleep although I tried to, when I got on such a hunt for an idea, until I had caught it. I was not satisfied until I had repeated it over and over again, until I had put it in language plain enough, as I thought, for any boy I knew to comprehend."

Lincoln also said that among his earliest and happiest memories was that of his mother reading folk tales to him. Robinson Crusoe, Pilgrim's Progress and the Bible are among the books he read over and over again—an explanation of his forceful simple style of speech and writing.

The World and the Mud Puddles

IT WILL BE INTERESTING

Back in the last century, Robert Louis Stevenson wrote and published a story, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." The story was interpreted in a thousand different ways. Finally, it was conceded that the story illustrated the constant struggle in the human mind between the power of good and evil.

Richard Mansfield took the story and dramatized it. Mansfield was not only an actor, but he was a manager and producer of plays. Those who saw Mansfield portray the character known as Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde shivered and gasped. There were no end of women in the audience who fainted and even strong men were known to have passed out. The play was a sensation of the day.

Heida Hopper relates a story her husband, Dr. Wolfe Hopper, used to tell about the time he dined with Mansfield in a hotel room in Philadelphia during the time Mansfield was playing in Philadelphia. "Above the table was a lone green lamp which lighted our faces and threw the rest of the room in deep shadows. I remember a bell in a neighboring tower, which broke into the subsequent recital with weird opportunities."

Mansfield seldom talked shop, but this night yielded to my plea and told of his sensations when he first appeared as the monster in Boston. I was spellbound and in a burst of enthusiasm asked what he did and how he did it.

"And there four feet away, under the green light, as the booming clock struck the hour, he changed to Hyde before my very eyes, and that's the nearest I ever came to falling in a dead faint."

Motion picture theater patrons are now looking forward to seeing how Spencer Tracy will portray this remarkable character of Stevenson's. Tracy takes his work seriously and has given a great deal of thought to the character. His portrayal will not be an imitation of Mansfield's, because Tracy belongs to another generation of players. The picture will be Tracy's.

You must get both sides. If Jones tells you Smith is a half-fool, Smith will tell you in all sincerity: "Jones is all right, but he's dumb."

Remember back in the old days when they gave public sauerkraut dinners?

About the only time some birds have their feet on the ground is when they have holes in the soles of their shoes.

"How are you going to sit under your own vine and fig tree when you live in an apartment house," asks a local flapper.

Pete was making a social call at the home of Julius.

"You've got a pretty place here, Julius, but it looks bare yet," remarked Pete.

"Oh, it's only because the trees are a bit young," replied Julius. "I hope they'll have grown to good size before you call again."

It seems that the best dressed women don't pay much attention to how their husbands are dressed.

A man's clothes can make him, but his wife's clothes can break him.

"Well, Mary," said a farmer, handing over a big roll of bills, "now that we have struck oil, I want you to have some decent clothes."

"Nothing doing," she snapped. "I've worn decent clothes all my life. Now I'm going to dress like other women."

A woman, given the choice of a baby or a new car, adopted a fine baby boy. She will also get the car.

GOING, GOING, GONE!

At an informal gathering, a long argument had been going on about whether women should be allowed to do men's jobs.

The local auctioneer decided to take a hand.

"At any rate," he said mildly, "mine is a profession that women can't take up."

"Nonsense!" said a strong-minded woman. "A woman would make quite as good an auctioneer as a man."

"I wonder!" replied the auctioneer. "Try to imagine an unmarried woman standing up before a crowd and saying: 'Now, gentlemen, who'll make me an offer?'"

We always like people who value our opinions, even if they do get stung by so doing.

A sign seen in a butcher shop: "I am a member of the volunteer fire department, and should a fire occur I am duty bound to respond to the alarm. If you are being served at such a time, please excuse my sudden departure. It may be YOUR home."

The henpecked husband may be cowed, but he isn't wholly subdued. He still has the spirit to pout.

It is claimed that a bear will not attack a person who lies still on the ground and feigns death. We still think if we get near a bear we will try the old style, galloping away as fast as possible.

The railroads are particularly about the type of water their engines use. The water which goes into an engine boiler is as clean as the water you drink.

HAD IT FIGURED OUT

A young woman and a handsome farm lad were walking along a country road together in the evening. The farm lad was carrying a large pail on his back, holding a chicken in one hand, a cane in the other and leading a goat. They came to a dark lane.

Said the girl: "I'm afraid to walk

here with you. You might try to kiss me."

Said the farm lad: "How could I with all these things I'm carrying?"

"Well, you might stick the cane in the ground, tie the goat to it and put the chicken under the pail!"

How many people do you think will go to the court house and look in the corridor to see what the budget for Lawrence county will be. Why not publish such an important document?

Crooks cannot join the army, and some try to be crooks just to keep from being taken in.

Good Taste

"I recently had my living room furniture re-upholstered, and naturally I am rather pleased with my new, delicately covered chair while her husband sat with one foot on the edge of my coffee table. They are really very nice people, well-bred and all that; but this is their way of being modern and nonchalant. Please give your readers a hint about respecting other people's property."—Kay Jay.

Answer: I do not blame you for being perturbed! I am sure your friends' violations of etiquette were merely forms of abatement-mindedness; but, nevertheless, they should be curbed.

We have all heard of the "saving sense of humor" and here is one of those situations that can be saved only through that sense.

When next your friends violate your belongings, adopt a very pert and saucy, yet goodnatured tone and while patting the culprit affectionately say something to this effect: "You will surely get the bill for this if you send my chair back to the upholsterer to have your footprints taken off it," or "Jack, for every scratch your big feet put on my coffee table, you will have to give a dollar to the Red Cross."

Question: Should a woman on her stationery use only the crest or only the shield of her family's coat-of-arms?—Mrs. J.

Answer: The laws of English heraldry require that a woman omit the helmet and crest at all times, except the sovereign, who adds these to her shield. This rule is based on the fact that the crest was originally the individual decoration of a warrior. It was worn upon the helmet in battle to distinguish him personally from others.

On coats-of-arms, the crest is often the head or entire body of an animal, placed above the helmet.

Answer to V: In such a case, her mother may give her away, but the bride walks up the aisle alone.

During the part in the ceremony when the clergyman asks: "Who giveth this woman to be married?" the mother answers "I do." This she may say for her pew, or if she so chooses she may proceed, to the left and a little behind the bride, just as the latter's father would have done.

Tomorrow—The Complaining Hostess

By FONTAINE FOX

A man was found strangled by the necktie of a robber in New York. Just showing some ties would put some people out.

About the only definite thing and what people can understand that comes out of Washington is the taxes they are ordered to pay.

The mayor asked a complainant if he could swear the accused was the man. "I did swear at him, but he swore back and drove on," the man replied.

A man who was married in a church many years ago—and did not do so well—has been opposed to church lotteries ever since.

We say animals are dumb because they don't talk; but people don't seem dumb until they do.

Some Dictators Liked In United States
Rulers Of Greece And Portugal On List
European Exiles Assisted By Portuguese

By CHARLES P. STEWART

(Central Press Columnist)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Far be it from our state department to defend any dictatorship, whatever. Nevertheless, it's confidentially chatted around departmental headquarters that some dictators aren't as bad as some others are.

The late Premier Metaxas of Greece was one, and the most anti-dictatorial of critics can't help pleading guilty to plenty of admiration for his management of the Greek campaign against the Italians under Dictator Mussolini's general supervision.

Portugal's Salazar regime is a dictatorship, too. The Portuguese aren't particularly praised, like the Greeks, for their fighting prowess, since they're not involved in the war, as yet, anyway. What's being commented on in their favor is their amazing decency in their treatment of refugees from the conflict-stricken European area. The state department hears of it from its diplomatic representation in Lisbon. A good many of the refugees themselves also are arriving in the United States from the Portuguese capital, and telling their stories of the little country's hospitality.

Portugal's simply swamped with these fugitives. It's very poor and hard put to it to care for them. Yet its charity is described as absolutely unlimited. Arrivals at its frontier are mostly penniless, but no questions are asked as to their ability to support themselves or pay their bills. If they're refugees they're invited right in, and fed and sheltered at Portugal's own expense, up to the limit of Portuguese resources. It's related that such of the native folk as are opulent enough to own autos make a regular practice of meeting the newcomers with their cars at the Spanish border, to carry them to wherever they can be quartered.

No Profitting
A few of the fleeing exiles have money to pay for their accommodations, but it's said there's no profitting for encouraging this policy.

Dictators Hitler, Mussolini and Stalin rate at the state department as 100 per cent awful. The Jap dictatorship figures at about 99 per cent, Dictator Franco of Spain figures around 95 per cent, with possibilities of a hike in the quotation. But the Greek and Portuguese exiles are considerably discounted—the Greeks for its courage and defensive bellicosity, the Portuguese for its benevolence.

Our hyphenated Greek-Americans are tickled pink at the showing their homeland has been making against the Fascists.

When Benito first began picking on Premier Metaxas they were considerably perturbed. I'm well acquainted with one of them—a Greek restaurant man, is name, of all things, is Corrigan. I once asked him how he explained it. It seems his original name was Corrigan, with a soft "g." It was Greek-Armenian. He modified it a trifle for local purposes. Other names in our midst have been transformed similarly. There's a sizable Greek tribe in Washington which gives its cognomen as Perkins. This being my own middle monicker, I investigated and ascertained the Greek original was Perkinz.

Anyway, early in the Greek-Italian muss I consulted Greek-American Corrigan as to the probable outcome.

"If they tackle us only five to one," he said, "we can lick 'em. If they get above that they may make us trouble." He was rather despondent. Today he's as cocky as Militades.

Our Portuguese-American population is pretty skimpy. It's numerous in Hawaii, but not on our mainland.

However, indirectly we have an important tie-up with Portugal.

Brazil, the biggest, most populous and strongest of our Latin-American neighbors is Portuguese by descent and the relationship between ancestor and offspring always has remained a very close one—much more so than ours, with England, or than Spain's, with the rest of Latin America.

Our Best Friend
And Brazil traditionally is our own best friend south of the Rio Grande.

Well, the refugees, now over-flowing Portugal, naturally are refugees because they're anti-totalitarian. And inasmuch as Portugal is so nice to 'em, it would seem to follow that the Portuguese people, despite the Salazar dictatorship, aren't altogether so darned undemocratic. And Brazil's likely to reflect Portugal. On Pan-American grounds we should be glad of it.

Oh, yes, I know, under President Vargas Brazil itself is a good deal of a dictatorship, but it isn't a dictatorship in a class with Herr Hitler's, Signor Mussolini's or Comrade Stalin's.

In short, there appear to be dictators with absolutely nothing but bad qualities and dictators we might like—if they weren't dictators.

What Noted People Say

(International News Service)

NEW YORK—Wendell L. Willkie declares that aid to Britain is America's best safeguard against war.

"If Britain collapses, I think the chances of America becoming shortly involved in the war are very great."

LONDON—Prime Minister Winston Churchill asserts that Great Britain needs immense supplies of war materials and ships and not men.

"We do not need the gallant armies which are forming throughout the American union. We do not need them this year nor next year nor any year that I can foresee."

VATICAN CITY—Pope Pius XII recalls that his predecessor, Pope Pius XI, offered his life for peace. "That great heart no longer beats but the ardor which warmed and animated it is not dead or encased in the tomb. It lives in God because it is an immortal spark."

WASHINGTON—House Speaker Sam Rayburn appeals for passage of the lend-lease bill.

"Either we give the President the flexible powers necessary to help Britain, or by our inaction we strengthen Hitler's powers to conquer Britain and attack us."

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1940 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

With the speed of light, modern communications bring us this swift summary of another day of peril—one more dawn and sunset nearer what might seem to us the most fateful battleground of modern civilization. I believe that any dweller in a partnership house in New York City, Baltimore, or San Francisco, or a worker in a skyscraper with a window giving on a waterfront, may, if he looks and heeds, see the fate of man in a long-sweep of history, in the slower, gut-stream tempo of unstayed tides of human destiny. And I believe that he will thereby feel a thrill of reality deeper than the shrill clamor of the headlines.

I caught this glimpse from a high window today and went down to the waterfront, and now I'm thinking of ships and the men who drive them through perilous seas. This rowdy little tramp, with a deep growl of contempt for all the new demons of the sky and the deep, is off to some place called Vigo. "Shift off and square her—lay along and single up the after moorings—get her angled—"

A bucco mate is shouting from the poop.

They get her angled—into whatever hell may lie ahead, and you can't feel feeling that way, too. If you go down to the waterfront and see how men still fare, and come home again, and tell the tales of their voyaging, as they have done from the days of the Chaldeans. You know they will continue to do so.

You resolved to read Conrad's "Chance" and Masello's "Dauber," for therein you know that the ways of the sea is written the story of the undying will and courage of man.

And just today, here among the grubby old freighters is the Josephine, off for Aden, the Scania, to Buenos Aires, the Memphis City to Manila, and the Angeline to San Juan. There's a new stir, a busy and bustling new importance among them. War is not altogether paralysis. The conflict between Greece and Italy has given a curious and fascinating lift to the Western Hemisphere's banana trade.

Greeks and Italians are the principal middlemen and retailers in the distribution of bananas. The first mandate of a country at war demands the full efforts of its nationals to establish a foreign trade balance. Greeks and Italians are showing bananas in a hot rivalry to outstrip each other in writing up scores for the homeland. It is one of a score of reminders of the variety and vitality of sea-borne commerce in time of war or peace.

Into the hold of almost any old tub, bound through the Canal for San Francisco, stevedores are packing nitrates, steel ingots, steel mill pipe for concrete walls, matches, paper towels, wallpaper, washing single up the after moorings—get her angled—"

Words Of Wisdom

The chief ingredients in the composition of those qualities that gain esteem and praise are good nature, truth, good sense and good breeding.—Addison.

HOW TO GET A LOAN TO PAY YOUR DOCTOR BILL

You can get $100 to pay old debts or other expenses if you can repay $6.97 a month for 18 months—No endorsers or guarantors needed—A simple, private way to borrow.

HAVE unusual expenses caught you short of ready cash? Do you need money to pay old bills? If you have a steady job, you can readily borrow $20 to $300—and repay in small monthly installments. Suppose that you need $100. Find this amount in the first column of the table. Then read across picking out the monthly payment you wish to make. 12 monthly installments of $9.75 each, for instance, will repay a $100 loan in full. The cost, in this case, averages less than 5c a day. You may prefer smaller payments. Only $6.97 a month for 18 months will also repay a $100 loan. The amount you borrow and the time you take to repay it determines the cost. You can borrow $25 for two months, for instance, for only 94c.

Borrow for less
Installments in the table include all charges at Household's rate of 2 1/2% per month on that part of a balance in excess of $100. This rate is less than the maximum prescribed by the Small Loan Law.

Nine Hi-Y Clubs In State Contest

New Castle Boys Enter Bible Study Contest—Rev. McLean Speaks Tonight

Members of nine New Castle Hi-Y clubs are among the 13,174 high school students entered in the 12th annual Pennsylvania State Y. M. C. A.'s Bible Study Contest, now starting, Boys' Work Director John D. Thompson reported today.

Exactly 427 schools and clubs are represented in the contest which over the 12-year span has been participated in by 100,000 Pennsylvania high school youths.

Rev. William V. McLean, pastor of First Methodist church, will address the Junior Hi-Y clubs of New Castle at a rally in the "Y" this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The course will be continued over the next eight weeks, with a speaker appearing at intermittent rallies.

Senior high is represented in the state contest by the Senior, Junior and Sophomore clubs. George Washington by its club, Franklin by its Junior Hi-Y club, Mahoning school by the Mahoning club, Shenango by its group and Union high by its Junior and Senior Hi-Y clubs.

News Briefs From City Hall

For some reason or other there has been a scarcity of ice skating ponds in the district this year. Last winter there were three places to skate in the Seventh Ward.

Seventh Ward Community Center, Cherry street, is proving to be quite a popular place. Boys and girls of all ages find the Center a good place to make friends and play games inside where it is both safe and warm.

The snowman at the Crawford-Oakridge N.Y.A. resident Girls' Work Experience Center, is a sorry sight. The huge old man is beginning to show the effects of a mixture of warm and cold weather.

When the new addition is completed at the Crawford-Oakridge N.Y.A. Center, there will be plenty of available space for additional girls, it is learned.

Pre-Lenten Season Activities Announced

St. Andrew's Episcopal church announced the following pre-Lenten activities:

A meeting of the Junior Guild at the home of the president this evening, February 11, at which time plans will be completed for a pre-Lenten social evening to be held possibly on Shrove Tuesday, February 25.

Choir Guild will hold its regular meeting Monday evening, February 17, with the president, Mrs. Mayme Ott, in charge.

Young People's Fellowship will hold its regular monthly social evening on Thursday, February 20, in the form of a St. Valentine's party with Misses Florence Garner and Agnes Cartwright in charge.

St. Andrew's Senior Guild will hold a St. Valentine's tea in the guild hall, Belmont street, Thursday evening, February 13, at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Jacob C. Hetrick in charge, assisted by all members of the guild and pastor. Among those contributing to the talent will be Miss Billie Glenn with several of her acts; Miss Betty Cope, Mrs. Carmi Glover, Miss Ruth Snyder, Miss Laura Jane Evans and Chester E. Hetrick.

Full plans for the Lenten services will be announced next week by the pastor, Rev. Charles J. Burton.

home" and again thread the windward passage and the gun-bristling canal with another load.

We would do well to borrow England's Masfield—who with his "Cargoes," with its pig-iron and "old tin trays" made an imperishable poem, in the mood of a man who sees in the flux of sea and ships an outreach of the human spirit which will not be stayed—to borrow Masfield to sing of our ships which "fill the sails of destiny," unless we can find a Virgil of our own.

Down in the hold of the newspaper, with the sweepings and miscellany of the day's news, they put the "Shipping and Mails." In those quaint old early-day blanket sheets of New York and Philadelphia, surviving in yellowing files, an incoming ship sailed right into the top of a first page column, as well it might do today, if we had John Masfield for a waterfront reporter.

It was England's Swinburne, however, who hymned the sea in a "Song in Time of Order." It still stands out bravely in a time of disorder, as do the staunch ships and men of the sea, today and forever.

"The wind is as iron that rings. The foam-heads loosen and flee; It swells and welters and swings, The pulse of the tide of the sea.

Good hap to the fresh, fierce weather, The quiver and beat of the sea! While three men hold together, The Kingdoms are less by three.

They have tied the world in a tether. They have bought over God with a fee; While three men hold together, The Kingdoms are less by three.

Will they tie the winds in a tether, Put a bit in the jaws of the sea? While three men hold together, The Kingdoms are less by three.

All the world has its burdens to bear, From Cayenne to the Austrian whips; Forth, with the rain in our hair And the salt, sweet foam on our lips.

In the teeth of the hard, glad weather, In the blown, wet face of the sea, While three men hold together, The Kingdoms are less by three."

Expecting a Baby?

Mother's Friend helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an exquisitely prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massaging medium in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy. It helps keep the skin soft and pliable, thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin, for the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use.

Mother's Friend
Highly praised by users, many doctors and nurses. Just ask any druggist for Mother's Friend—the skin lubricant. Try it tonight.

"My desire is to do everything within my power to free the people from drudgery and create . . . happiness and prosperity."

EDISON was a young man when he made the statement quoted above. Our modern way of life is evidence that he amply fulfilled his desire.

Among all his achievements the one which has had most beneficial results is the development of the incandescent lamp—adapting electricity to street, factory, and home lighting.

SCIENCE has since vastly improved upon Edison's original lamp. Modern lamps provide light enough to eliminate eyestrain caused by overworked eyes in poor light. It is no longer necessary for children to spend long tedious hours pouring over textbooks in straining half-light. You are the guardian of your children's eyesight. OAK ST. P. T. A. MEETING

Founders Day was observed by the Oak street P. T. A. Monday evening with a program of music and dramatization. Two puppet shows, "The Enchanted Princess" and "The Adventures of Betty", were presented by the following children: Joan Day, William Merriman, Theresa Lovaglio, Joe Anderson, Jean Hill, Mamie Dubrock, Wilda Merriman, Floyd Book, Edward Brown, Arlene Blank, Margery Scullio, Donna Jean Pasquerella, Charles Hemphill, Dorothy Caldwell, Carmelinda Champ, Eria Pander and Wilton Maxwell.

The VFA orchestra, directed by Ben Schulanski, presented an entertaining hour of music.

At the close of the program, Mrs. Meade Thompson presided at the business session.

Tea was served by the hospitality committee: Mrs. S. A. Mitchell, Mrs. Joseph DeSignor, Mrs. Philomena Marino, Mrs. Ernest Cresby, Mrs. W. E. McKenzie and Miss Marie McElroy.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for kindness and sympathy extended us during illness and death of our wife and mother, Mrs. Anna W. Mallory. Also, for floral tributes.

Competition is the spice of sports and is proving to have the same effect on Pennsylvania's legislators. With the General Assembly politically divided each side is striving to present a program which will be an improvement on its opponent. The result may be a more highly constructive session than had earlier been thought possible, many legislators forecast.

Dent's bill to place the legislature's research body, the joint state government commission, on a 100 per cent non-partisan basis, stands little chance of enactment. Although the measure sponsored by the Westmoreland county Democrat passed the Senate, the tipoff was the number of Democrats who voted against it. It passed largely with Republican support. Present indications are that the commission will come under Democratic control or be eliminated altogether.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 11.—The refusal of motorists voluntarily to reduce their speed on the Pennsylvania Turnpike during the winter months is expected to result soon in legislative action. A measure will be probably introduced setting a definite speed limit for the super-highway which will be enforced in summer as well as during the danger months. Reports are that the Pennsylvania Motor police, who are making a survey of road conditions, will recommend a 60-mile an hour speed limit for the Harrisburg-Pittsburgh tunnel highway.

There is a uniform speed maximum of 50-miles for all highways in the state. Super-highway engineers announced when the turnpike opened last October that state government commission, which was created in 1937, is headed by Rep. Ellwood J. Turner. To date this research body has been given $75,000 for its work. The senate has adopted a bill continuing the commission on a non-partisan basis. It is now Republican-controlled. The measure is expected to fail in the house, where the commission may be scrapped or brought under Democratic control.

The local government commission has received $25,000. It was created in 1935 to study improvement of local governments.

Government James says the time will probably come when no able-bodied man will be permitted to remain idle if there is work to be done. Men will be compelled, he predicted, either to accept gainful employment or join the army and aid their country in national defense.

President A. N. Carbon, of the Wolves club, today announced that Wednesday evening's Valentine party has been postponed indefinitely. Illness of several members brought about the postponement, Carbon said.

The omission in the governor's budget of any appropriation for the joint state government commission and the local government commission leads to the belief on Capitol Hill that both may be scrapped by the present legislature. The joint

Preaches At Mission Tonight; Stranded Couple Gets Help

Superintendent Archie Gibson returns to his City Rescue Mission pulpit tonight at 8, after speaking for the past two weeks at services in McKeesport's Haven of Rest Mission.

He said that over the week end the local mission and the Y. W. C. A. helped a husband and wife, whose car burned in Kansas City a few weeks ago. Enroute from Denver to Boston, the couple's car took fire and left them stranded. Missions along the way are helping them get to Boston.

The first air conditioned factory in America was established at Gastonia, N. C. It was equipped with an air conditioning outfit during construction in 1905.

Cheap Eyeglasses

Eyeglasses are worthless at any price, if not properly fitted. The accuracy or "fit" of glasses depends entirely upon the ability and judgment of the examiner, plus his use of modern instruments. Cheap glasses are usually associated with careless, hasty eye examination, lack of style and disappointment in the relief expected. When you can have your eyes thoroughly examined here and enjoy the dependability of our guaranteed optical service at our reasonable prices, isn't it foolish to take chances with the "only pair of eyes you'll ever have"?

Death Toll In State Highest Ever Recorded

Accidents Of All Types Raise Figures For Pennsylvania To New High Last Year

HEART TROUBLE IS LEADING CAUSE

By LEONARD APPELBAUM
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Feb. 11.—Heart disease continued as Pennsylvania's public health enemy No. 1 during 1940 as the death toll mounted to the highest in the history of the state.

Miss Ann Halkovich, chief statistician of the bureau of vital statistics, state department of health, today revealed that 109,960 persons died from all causes during the past year, excluding deaths from still births.

On the opposite side of the ledger, however, the bur au recorded 164,333 live births for 1940, an increase of 3,079 over 1939.

As usual, the primary cause of death in Pennsylvania was heart disease, perennia leader in fatalities. Other causes in order of their importance were: cancer, cerebral hemorrhage, nephritis, accidents, pneumonia and tuberculosis.

"The distribution of deaths was general," Miss Halkovich said, "with accidents of all types raising the fatalities to the record high."

"Basing percentage figures on exact totals for the first 11 months and estimates for December, the birth rate in the state this year will average 18.1 per 1000 population. This is slightly in excess of the 17.3 per 1000 population figures for the entire nation."

Medical men derived satisfaction from reports on the first 11 months of 1940 that maternal deaths were considerably lower than in 1939 according to figures compiled by the statistics bureau, 382 maternity deaths were recorded in 1940 as compared to 474 the previous year.

Miss Halkovich explained the increased death toll resulted from higher fatalities in cancer, cerebral hemorrhage, nephritis and heart disease while communicable ailments such as measles, whooping cough and scarlet fever added to the general totals.

Additional figures based on the first 10 months of the year revealed that 31 deaths resulted from infantile paralysis compared to 39 in 1939. Spinal meningitis, however, showed a slight increase with 55 fatalities for the past year as compared to 53 the previous year.

January Marked By Excessive Snowfall

Sixteen Inches Of Snow Fell During Month, With Temperatures Near Normal

January was marked by heavier snows than usual, a total of 16 inches being noted, the figures of the U.S. Weather Observing Station here, as recorded at Harrisburg reveal. Fortunately a great part of this melted off, but the ground is still well blanketed.

The temperature was slightly in excess of the normal figure for January, but there was a deficiency in the amount of precipitation.

The figures show the mean maximum temperature was 36.4 degrees, the mean minimum, 23 degrees, and the mean or average, 29.7 degrees. The normal temperature for January is 28 degrees, the excess being 1.7 degrees. The highest was 51 degrees on January 18, and the lowest was 4 degrees on January 21. The greatest daily range was 36 degrees on the 21st.

The total precipitation for the month was 1.93 inches, almost all of which came down in the form of snow, a total of 16 inches of snowfall being noted. The greatest in 24 hours was .38 inches on the 24th. Days with .01 inches or more of precipitation were 18, days clear, 2; partly cloudy, 9; and cloudy, 20.

The normal temperature for the month is 28 degrees, and the precipitation, 3.20 inches. In January of 1940, the temperature was 9 degrees below the normal, and the precipitation was 2.09 inches under the normal. Only 6.8 inches of snow was noted in 1940.

City Authority Body Is Planned

Measure Introduced Into Council On Monday To Provide For Step

When council met Monday in city hall Councilman D. O. Davies presented a proposed ordinance which creates an authority in the City of New Castle similar to the State Authority. The bill was sent to committee for consideration.

The Authority shall have all of the purposes and powers provided by the Act of June, 1935, and in addition thereto any purposes and power which shall be hereafter authorized for such an Authority by any future act of assembly of this commonwealth.

The said Authority shall have the further purpose and power to do anything for the furtherance or maintenance of the peace, good government, safety and welfare of the city and its trade, commerce and manufacturers.

The several officers of the said city are hereby authorized, according to the measure and directed to do and perform every lawful requisite and convenient thing for the organization of the said Authority as provided by law.

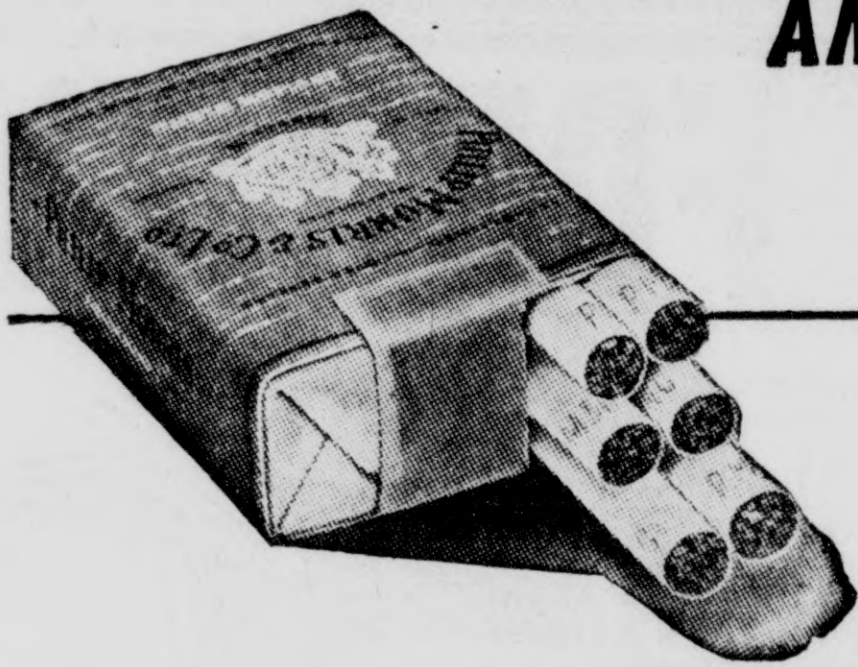

Propose 400 Feet Wall On State St.

City of New Castle council, acting upon the recommendation of City Engineer Glenn R. Throop Monday requested approval of the WPA to extend the proposed stone wall along State Street hill farther than at first planned.

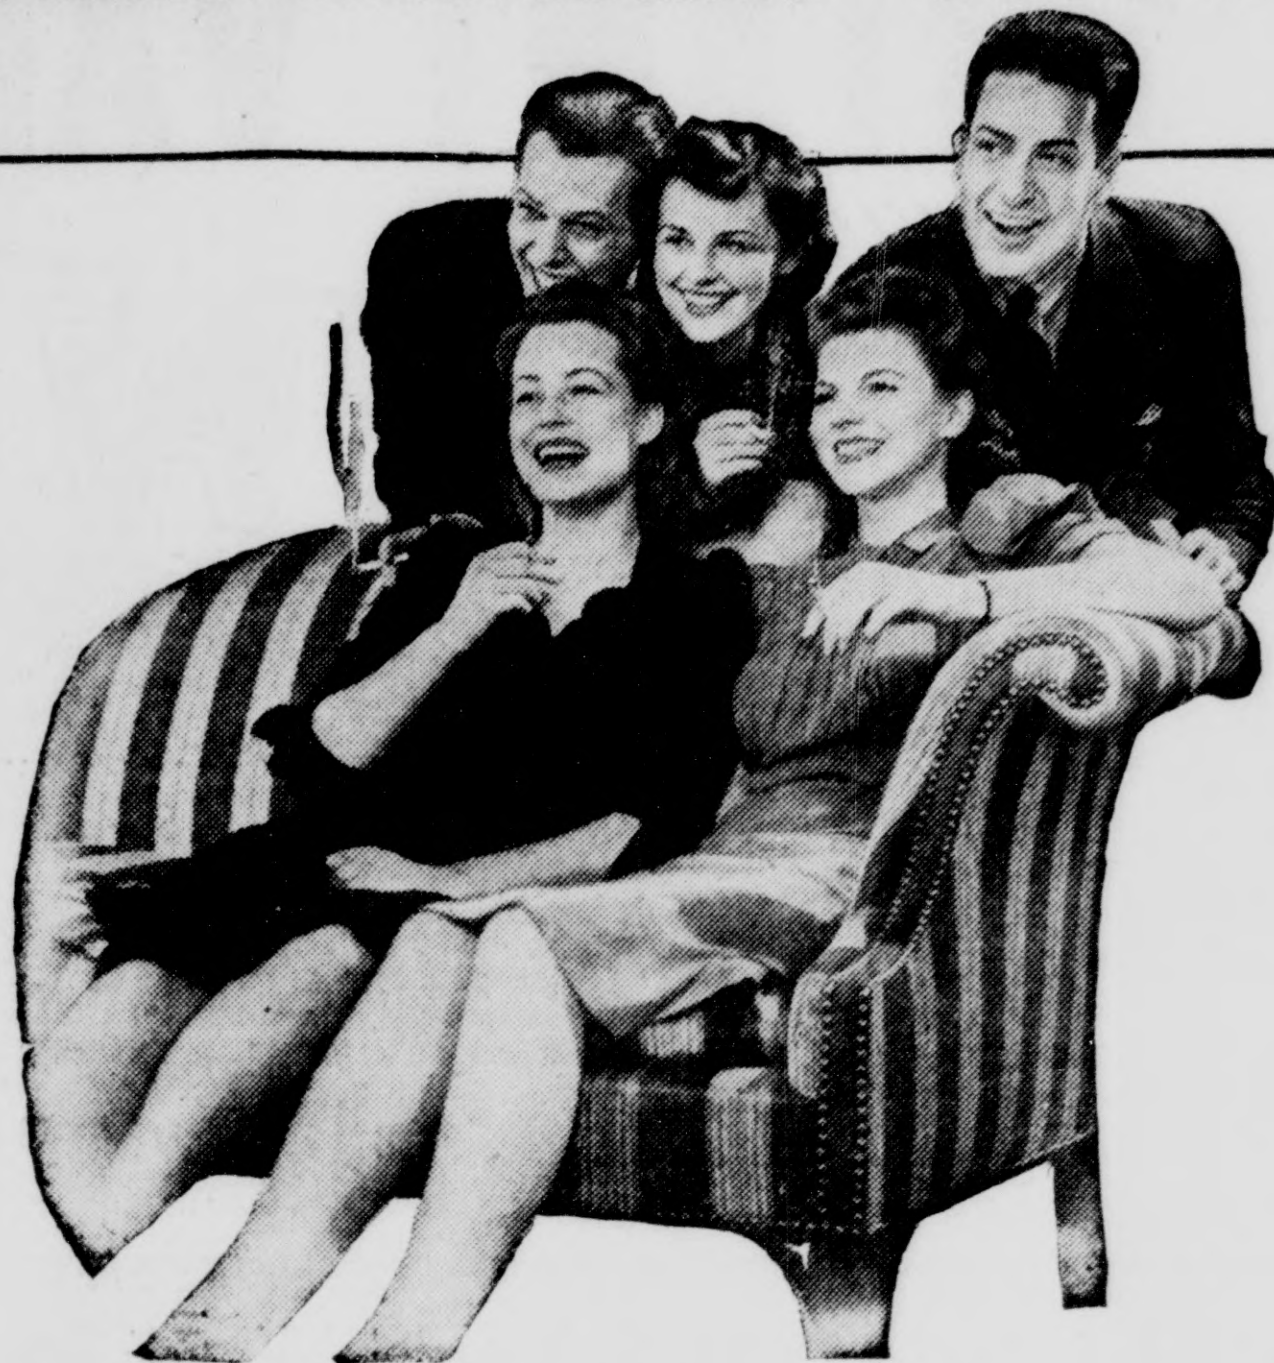

Throop said the wall now will be 400 feet long.

He also recommended the WPA approve the construction of concrete sign posts for street names. They will have the names of the streets cast in cement and will be placed at intersections here, he stated.

The complete cost of the proposed wall extension and the concrete posts will be $16,340 of which the city's cost will be $4,317.

A WELCOME CONQUEST
Fortunately for us all, war does not halt science's progress. Every day brings discoveries that make man less of a prey to some disease scourge. One of the most recent conquests of science is pneumonia.

Not that pneumonia isn't still a serious disease that yearly kills thousands of persons. But with science having learned so much in the last few years about how to combat the organisms that causes pneumonia, it is reasonable to expect that in a few more years we will see it relegated to the company of diphtheria and typhoid fever as one of the completely controllable diseases. It is still a highly fatal affliction of the race because the serums and drugs developed to fight it, haven't come into widespread use yet.

When I left medical school, over thirty years ago, pneumonia was one of the common winter diseases among both children and adults. It killed a very high percentage of its victims and many more were left weakened and debilitated so that they were easy prey to other infections. In those days, we had no other treatment for the patient other than to make him as comfortable as possible.

We would keep the patient quiet in a cool room, for his temperature would be very high and breathing would be difficult. When his temperature rose above 104 degrees he was given a sponge bath with cool water. Frequent changes of clothing were necessary because the patient perspired so freely. Such nursing care was about all the patient got.

Of course, we provided some medication in the treatment for its psychological effect. The patient's family expected it, and felt the doctor didn't know his business if no medicine was given. And we knew, too, that something harmless in the way of medicine helped the patient. It helped bolster up his courage and gave him the will to fight. He felt that the doctor was helping him and not just standing by and letting him put up the whole fight by himself. But that, in effect was what he was doing. If he had the constitution and the will to recover, he did. If not, he didn't.

When I was young in the profession, fresh from the class room, I had a contempt for giving medicine except where it was absolutely necessary. However, I soon found out that my patients didn't share my attitude. I learned that even water colored and given an unpleasant test, was valuable as a medicine. Today they call this psychology, but in those days it was just plain horse sense.

If a man is sick, and he is given medicine that he feels should cure him, he immediately feels better. And if he feels better, he is better.

But this is getting away from the subject, which is pneumonia. Tomorrow: how modern treatment was developed to control it.

To Relieve Bad Cough In a Hurry, Mix This at Home
Swift Acting, and Saves Big Money. Easily Mixed.
You'll be surprised how quickly and easily you can relieve coughs due to colds, when you try this splendid recipe. It gives you about four times as much cough medicine for your money, and you'll find it truly wonderful, for real relief.

Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed—it's no trouble at all. Then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (obtained from any druggist) into a pint bottle. Add your syrup and you have a full pint of medicine that will amaze you by its quick action. It never spoils, lasts a family a long time, and tastes fine—children love it.

This simple mixture takes right hold of a cough. For real results, you've never seen anything better. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and quickly eases soreness and difficult breathing.

Pinex is a compound containing Norway Pine and palatable guaracol, in concentrated form, well-known for its prompt action in coughs and bronchial irritations. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

Dr. Jos. Dewey Resigns Place At Westminster

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 11.—Dr. Joseph C. Dewey, head of the department of education and psychology, Westminster college, has resigned his position to become director of teacher training and placement at Northern State Teachers college, Marquette, Michigan. Dr. Dewey will leave to take up his new work March 15.

For the past five years, Dr. Dewey has headed the Westminster college educational work and has been director of teacher placement for the past three years.

Little Junk Now Reaches "Dumps"

There was a time when one could travel to city dumps and see an ocean of broken auto fenders, smashed bodies, hundreds of rims and other portions of autos and trucks which had outlived their usefulness. However, things are different nowadays, according to Sanitary Policeman Chauncey Davis.

He declared that no longer are parts of worn-out or wrecked autos found at the city dumps.

"The pieces are being bought and sold for junk," he asserted. With scrap bringing a high price, the damaged material is sold as such and sooner or later it finds its way to the battlefields of Europe or Asia in the form of death-dealing weapons.

INCOME TAX IN A NUTSHELL

COMPENSATION OF STATE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

All officers or employees of States, or political subdivisions thereof, or any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing, are required to include in gross income, for Federal income-tax purposes, the compensation received by them during the year as such officers or employees.

Retired officers and employees of States, and political subdivisions thereof, or any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing, who received in 1940 pensions or retirement annuities based on the services rendered by them while in active service as such officers or employees, are required to include such pensions or annuities in gross income for Federal income-tax purposes. If the pension or annuity is paid in whole or in part from a fund derived from amounts deducted from the compensation of such officer or employee while in active service, the amounts so contributed are considered the "consideration paid" for the pension or annuity. The amount received by the retired officer or employee shall be included in gross income each year to the extent of 3 percent of the "consideration paid," the balance of the annuity payments being excluded in determining gross income for that year. When the aggregate of the amounts thus excluded from gross income equals the "consideration paid," the entire amount thereafter received as a pension or annuity must be included in gross income.

These taxpayers are entitled to the same deductions and credits as are other taxpayers. Dues paid by teachers to professional societies, the price of their subscriptions to educational journals connected with their profession, and traveling expenses, including railroad fares and meals and lodging, incurred in attending teachers' conventions in the United States, if they are not reimbursed for such expenses, are deductible from the compensation received by them as teachers in determining net income for Federal income-tax purposes. Records of such expenditures should be kept to substantiate the deductions claimed.

Campaign expense and contributions made to political parties or organizations at any time are not deductible. Campaign contributions received by a candidate for a public office are gifts, and not income, so are not required to be included in the gross income for Federal income-tax purposes.

Ecclesian Club Birthday Tonight

All plans have been completed, and all is in readiness for the gala second anniversary for the Ecclesian club, and the observance of Founder's Day, which is being feted tonight in the club rooms, East Washington street.

Included on the speaking list are: Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Doerr, District Attorney John G. Lamoree and Emanuel Shenkan.

Uruguay will further subsidize civil aviation.

On Court House Hill

REALTY TRANSFERS

Mary M. Long to Phevonika Kulik, eighth ward, $180.
James H. Newton to Jacob H. Seetch, Ellport, $1.

Monday, February 10, was originally scheduled to mark the opening of the February civil court but instead the court room was vacant Monday save for a few moments court was open for petitions. There were not sufficient cases for the February civil court to warrant a term.

The county commissioners presented a petition Monday asking permission to sell land in Ellport to Michael Andrew Kolitsky, formerly sold to the county as the property of John Pals.

Dan Cupid takes a double edged cut at the personnel of the court house Friday. Miss Marian Traub of the prothonotary's office will wed William James of the state motor patrol and Miss Kathryn Binder of the county commissioners' office will wed Attorney Frank O. Moretti. Both couples will be married in the evening and both brides will wear blue.

There's a mystery in the law library. The picture of the bar association in 1901 was newly framed and was standing on the floor. Heat or pressure or something cracked the glass over the weekend and now Building Superintendent Clifford M. James wants to know if some lawyer tossed a few hot arguments in the direction of the picture.

The 1941 budget and tax levy were formally set Monday when the county commissioners met. The setting of it was a mere formality as the commissioners announced their intention of lowering the tax rate half a mill several days ago.

It is the intention of the county commissioners to start plans for an addition to the court house shortly. Tentatively the plan is to add a wing on the side of the building where the commissioners' clerical force is and to run the addition to the roof. Because of the unusual height of the rooms in the court house it would be possible to get three stories in the addition.

Adjustment of the recent fire loss in the court house annex is expected shortly and work can start upon the repairing of the building. It now develops that to the property loss caused by fire, many books in the library were injured by the heat, the glue in the covers melting.

Building Work Makes Progress

Staff Dormitory Added To List Of Buildings Now
Completed At CenterSHOP BUILDINGS TO BE STARTED SHORTLY

Despite the weather conditions, it was "business as usual" with carpenters and boys engaged in the erection of the buildings for the Boys' Work Experience Center at Cunningham park on Monday.

Boys could be seen at various points on the project ground, with iron bars breaking through the frozen ground, preparatory to digging post holes, three feet deep, for the insertion of posts, on which the various buildings are set. Sixteen carpenters were also busy at work, with a number of boys as helpers, of which there were 78 on the job Monday.

Since Thursday, when one barrack building was completed and another had the roof almost complete, a staff dormitory, 20 by 40 feet, has been completed, and another barrack building is under way.

The boys have foundations dug for three more barrack buildings, dining hall and recreation building.

John Frazier, general foreman, states that work is expected soon to commence on the two shop buildings, which will be of Truscon metal and fabricated; one will be a machine shop and the other for welding work.

Electrical and plumbing fixtures will be forwarded from Harrisburg and will be installed by local craftsmen.

Miss Rosena McGurk Tells Of Recent Trip To Mexico

There were nine county garden clubs represented at the meeting of the Lawrence County Garden Forum, held Monday night, in the home of the president, Mrs. Harry O. Sturdevant, Morton street.

Plans were made to join with the Men's Garden club for the next meeting, in The Castleton hotel, to see color pictures of the two worlds fair gardens. This will be on March 10.

Mrs. Agnes Howley, Mrs. C. O. Matthews, Mrs. Whiting, Mrs. C. R. Brenner and Miss Edna Robinson were named on a nominating committee.

Feature of the program was a talk by Miss Rosena McGurk. She told of a recent trip through Mexico, and dwelt specially on Mexican gardens. Miss McGurk displayed pictures, paintings, and other Mexican items in connection with her talk.

THE GREAT SMOKY MOUNTAIN NATIONAL park in North Carolina and Tennessee is unique among U. S. national parks in that it encourages original settlers and their descend- ants to keep their homes in the park.

Three arrested Joseph R. Dudash, Dan McDevitt and Harold M. Dean were the names given by three youths arrested by Patrolman Ray Showalter last night in a West Washington street business house, allegedly acting disorderly.

The trio obtained their freedom on cash bail bonds pending a hearing before Mayor Charles B. Mayne in police court today.

Motor Fleet Of 51 Pieces
Cost City $18,761 To Keep
In Operation Last Year

Sidney L. Lockley, city controller, today stated that the cost of providing new parts, furnishing mechanics' labor, carrying insurance and providing gas and oil for the city's fleet of 52 pieces of motorized equipment during 1940 amounted to $18,761.42.

He stated that the highest cost was for the operations of street department vehicles, 12 pieces, which includes the grader and street sweeper, and was $6,046.21. The next highest was the two shovels, grader and station wagon used on city-WPA projects and was $2,799.41.

The other costs were:

Police, four cars, $2,654.62; fire department, 10 pieces, $1,850.97; garbage, six pieces, $2,665.26; health bureau auto, $238.84; sewage plant, two pieces, $716.82; Cascade park and forester's car, $461.99; Sylvan Heights golf course tractor and a truck, $288.75; city engineer's car, $117.55; and sewer department, 3 pieces, $921.10.

When an apparatus is taken to the motor shop for repairs, the cost of the mechanics time is charged against the individual piece, likewise any repair parts.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

There are many foolish fallacies regarding the physiognomy. A receding chin does not signify a weak mentality.

Eyes close together are not a sign of deceitfulness.

Some persons have a tiny raised projection on the top of the ear.

This has been believed to characterize criminal tendencies.

There are a number of false beliefs about the ears.

Wax in the ears is not caused by personal uncleanness.

The wax glands in the ear may merely become overactive.

Washing the ears every day will not check this wax production.

Ears discharging pus, if left alone, will not cure themselves.

Ear buzzing is not caused by gossip, favorable or otherwise.

Beaver Falls Here Tonight In Loop Game

New Castle High Will Try For Second Victory Of Season Over Beaver Falls Team

RESERVE TEAMS IN PRELIMINARY

New Castle high school basketball team will endeavor to make it two wins in a row over the Beaver Falls High quintet here tonight at the George Washington High gym floor. In the preliminary game the reserves of both teams will meet at 7 o'clock.

Both New Castle and Beaver Falls are practically out of the Section Three running this season, but nevertheless the game tonight will be a hard fought affair, as the teams have been friendly rivals. New Castle beat Beaver Falls at the valley town several weeks ago. The visitors will be out for revenge.

Butler Here Friday

Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh has been experimenting with various starting lineups, and has just about fixed his mind on Red Ross and Bobby Lee for the forward jobs. Cooper to be the pivot man and Christopher and Thomas to handle the guard assignments.

For his first string subs Bridenbaugh has Zuckowsky, Tomatello, Parou and Melichar, who have had experience.

Beaver Falls has a well balanced team and one that will give the locals lots of trouble. They did not lose any players at the semester, while New Castle lost Bucc, Walls and Adamo.

On Friday night of this week New Castle will play Butler High at the George Washington High court in a return game to the one played at Butler on January 3.

The next Section Three game will be with Ambridge at the Ambridge floor on Tuesday night, February 18.

CELTICS WIN GAME

The Celtics defeated the Globetrotters last night in a House League game at the "Y" 45 to 25, with Caldwell the big star, getting eight field goals for 16 of the points. Smith, Vargo, and Davies also were high scorers.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Joe Welling, former lightweight title contender, enroute from Pittsburgh to Buffalo, stopped off here Monday to visit a former opponent, Bat Terry, the writer who handled Terry when he lost to Welling in Milwaukee and Tommy Jones. Outwardly Joe bears few scars to show for his gruelling encounters with such celebrities as Benny Leonard, Johnny Dundee et al. He recalled the battle, a semi-final, the night Jimmy Clabby fought Mike Gibbons in Milwaukee. The local fighter was technically stopped in the fifth round. Welling now has charge of some bank guards in Newark, N. J. During his stay yesterday he recalled bouts of yesteryear. Welling told of bringing Tony Melchior to the Jimmie Dime stable and of witnessing Tony Gibbons knock out Tony later in Ohio. He also discussed his battles with not only Leonard and Dundee (beating the latter) but also with Lew Tindler and Johnny Griffith.

Officers and club managers of the Lawrence County Baseball League will meet at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Sports Good store to complete plans for the 1941 banquet at Ellwood City and to discuss 1941 baseball plans of the league which was organized in 1922. Ellwood City captured the Lawrence County Baseball League title last year but in a series for the championship of the city and county lost to the city-county title to the Lawrence Indians of the City League. The pennant winners in the Lawrence circuit for the past 10 years follows: 1930, Universal Sanitary; 1931, Shenango Pottery; 1932, Scarazz; 1933, Mahoningtown; 1934, Bessemer; 1935, A. S. & T. P.; 1936, 1939, inclusive, Bessemer; and 1940, Ellwood City. The manager of the pennant winning team, Ellwood City, last year was George Patterson. Other managers were: Bessemer, James Martin; New Galilee, Al Bauman; Brent, Louis Guarini; Wampum White Sox, Ralph Ferucci; and Wampum Medusa, Joe Leopardo. The officers of the circuit last year were: President, Alec Samuels; honorary president, William G. Andrews; vice president, Charles Maletta; secretary, James Martin; treasurer, Eddie Connerly, and commissioners, Ed Fritz, New Castle; Earl Allen, Wampum; and Joe Latiano, Ellwood City.

New Castle Rifle Club Wins Match

The New Castle rifle club won an Interstate rifle match last night at the Cathedral range from the Zelenople rifle team 1429 to 1407. High man for the match was George Finley with a 290 string out of a 300 possible.

The results—New Castle: Finley 290, J. Moore 288, Gillich 266, J. Williams 264, Mowry 261—Total, 1429. Other New Castle strings, Gardner 277, Kilbreath 277, G. Williams 265, Wally Bowers 275, Ray Hammond 270. Zelenople: Tuma 285, Huffman 283, Semel 283, Wiser 279, Luntz 277—Total, 1407. Other Zelenople strings, Schmid 276, Rev. Wilson 276, Curry 279.

'Y' Men To Enter Volley Ball Meet

New Castle Y. M. C. A. volleyball players will be out to cop honors in the fast District Three Volley Ball tournament in the Butler "Y" Saturday, February 15.

Last week the men journeyed to Butler to meet their next-county neighbors in a "tune-up match" and won three of four games. They hope to maintain that place in tournament play.

Players representing the city association will include Al Jones, Wesley Mann, H. Dickinson, Stan Witherspoon, Jim Abraham, Sam Bullano, Richard Louer, Don Cloak and John Fraser.

THREE FAST GAMES IN PEARSON LEAGUE

Three fast games were played Monday night in the Pearson Basketball League. Wisconsin upset Michigan, 24-18. Purdue side-tracked Northwestern, 25-18 and Minnesota walloped Ohio State, 54-15. D. Fehrenback Breckling set a scoring mark by piling up 25 points.

Church League Games Monday

St. Vitus, Mahoning Methodists And First Baptists Win In Loop Engagements

Three fast games were staged last night at the "Y" in the New Castle church basketball league. In the opening setto the First Baptist team paced by Bobby Brest, "Twinkle-Toes" Campbell and Fraser defeated the Croton Methodist team 46 to 34.

In the second game the St. Vitus team remained in the undefeated class for the season to date by handing the Central Christians a 60 to 49 defeat, with Whitesides, Fleeger, Gennock, Bucc, Zingaro and Marcella all doing plenty of scoring.

The third and final game was taken by the Mahoning Methodist team over the Central Presbyterians 49 to 20. Scoring stars in the game were: Wilson, Denny and Howard.

Belloise And Bobo Win Bouts

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 11.—The aches and pains that filled Ossie Harris' body today served as a good reminder of the 10-round boxing lesson he received last night at the hands of Steve Belloise, New York middleweight. Both boys weighed in at 152½.

Harris, a Pittsburgher, was saved by the bell at the end of the sixth round. Stretched out cold on the floor as the bell rang, Harris was revived and managed to stay the distance, but the fight was Belloise's all the way.

Harry Bobo, Pittsburgh heavyweight, made amends for his last appearance against Wild Bill Boyd, of Boston, by flooring the New Englander three times in the first round before the referee stopped the fight. Bobo weighed 204-19 pounds heavier than Boyd, who held a knockout decision over him.

K. Pulaskis To Play McDonald

The K. Pulaski basketball team will play the fast McDonald, Ohio, Polish National Alliance team tonight at the K. P. hall in the main game, and in the preliminary the K. P. Jayvees will battle the A. Z. A. team of this city at 7:30 o'clock.

The Ohioans have a strong team and will give the Oaklanders a tough evening, it is reported.

Make Final Plans Wednesday Night

Officers and team managers of the Lawrence County Baseball League will meet at the Sport Goods store Wednesday evening to complete plans for the annual banquet which will be held in the Moose house at Ellwood City, February 19. Alec Samuels is president of the organization.

GENEVA RALLIES; DEFEATS BETHANY

Geneva College rallied to earn a 48-42 cage victory over Bethany, Monday night in Beaver Falls.

YOUNGSTOWN WINS

Youngstown College added the name of Wayneburg's Jacks to its mounting cage victories, 53-47, Monday night in Youngstown.

What a Cager!

Dwight Eddleman

Meet Dwight Eddleman, 18-year-old high school youth, who is chalking up a prep school basketball scoring record at Centralia, Ill., township high school. Eddleman already has scored 552 points this season, almost more than the complete point total of the team's opponents! In a recent game, he made 23 points, playing both the first and last quarters. The youth is six feet one and one-half inches tall and weighs 185 pounds. He is a high jumper on the track team, and has done six feet three.

OVERLIN IS HELD TO SURPRISE DRAW

Ken Overlin, middleweight champion, was held to a surprise 10-point draw by a one Paulie Walker, veteran Trenton mitt slinger, Monday night in Trenton, N. J.

The vet opened the champ's eye in the fourth. While the decision met with the approval of the gallery, most ringsiders believed Ken was the winner. Overlin weighed 165 compared to 164 for his adversary.

Johnny McHale, Notre Dame

Johnny McHale, Notre Dame sophomore center from Detroit, has been drafted—not by the army, but by the Detroit Tigers. He will leave school at the end of the current semester and he will report to the Tigers' farm in Beaumont, Tex. McHale won his letter under Bob Osterman, Detroit senior, last autumn, starting against Army when Osterman was hurt. He is a first baseman.

Art Pope, Notre Dame

Art Pope, Notre Dame reserve guard, whose basket in the final 10 seconds sent the Notre Dame Syracuse game into an overtime period from which the Irish emerged victorious, says that that game provided his greatest athletic thrill. Prior to that his biggest kick had come from scrimmaging against Johnny Baldwin, former Notre Dame star, and Pope's coach at Morgan Park, Ill., high school.

Bimelech went to the post for the 1940 Kentucky Derby

Bimelech went to the post for the 1940 Kentucky Derby a 40 to 1 favorite. He finished second and the place payoff was 60c to $1—a 50 per cent increase over what he would have paid his backers for a winning ticket—had he won.

Jefferson A. C. with Tommy Leach

The crowd was one of the best of the shows staged recently. The Infantile Paralysis Prevention fund received 50 percent of the net receipts. The show was staged by the Jefferson A. C. with Tommy Leach matching the boys.

The curtain went up when Frank Cortez, of Niles and Walter Means of Pittsburgh, put on a hot fight at 120 pounds. There were plenty of swings and when the judges split on the decision Referee Leyschock awarded the bout to Cortez.

The referee was Sam Leyschock; Judges, Steve DiNucci and Tommy Jones. Timekeeper, Billy Fazzone and Carl Chialella, announcer, Charles Walters. State boxing commission deputy, William Talbot, Rochester, Pa., and A. A. Representative, Edward Fritz, Sr.

Wrestling Bill Is Introduced

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Feb. 11.—Wrestling matches and exhibitions in Pennsylvania would be removed from the supervision of the State Athletic Commission under the provisions of a bill introduced in the house by Elmer J. Holland, Pittsburgh Democrat.

If enacted, the bill would leave wrestling supervision to local authorities.

"Wrestling matches are just exhibitions anyway," said Holland.

MANY TEAMS ENTER A.B.C.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 11.—A total of 5,798 teams will complete in the forty-first annual American Bowling Congress tournament in St. Paul March 13 to May 6, it was announced today by Elmer H. Baumgarten, secretary of the Congress.

Horne Wins By K.O. In Second

Hubert La Roache, Substitute For Delarado, Falls In Second

REALE, BAXTER AND LEASURE WIN BOUTS

Five knockdowns, two technical knockouts and two knockdowns. The foregoing chronicles what occurred last night in eight AAU boxing bouts in The Arena where the Jefferson A. C. staged a fistic program which benefitted the Prevention of Infantile Paralysis fund approximately $75.00.

The main bout between Sonny Horne of Niles and Hubert La Roache of Pittsburgh lacked the brilliance it would have contained had Ted Delarado not been attacked by pleurisy. He was forced to withdraw from the bout. Hubert did his best but as anticipated, his best was not equal to Sonny's punch.

La Roache endeavored to box the Niles wallopier in the first. He suffered a knockdown in the opening stanza but got up apparently unhurt. In the second he leaned a heavy right on Sonny's chin and that was the beginning of the end. Burke Plain Dealer welterweight champion tore after La Roache. The latter backed pedaled. However, his velocity was not sufficiently fast for him to escape a volley of rights and lefts to the jaw and he was knocked out. They are welterweight fighters.

Billy Reale of Castledwood scored a technical knockout over Buddy Burke of Pittsburgh, at 160, in the second round of the semi-final. Billy forced the going. Toward the end of the first Burke was floored but arose without taking a count. He tried to outbox and out-foot Reale. Reale continued to wade in when the second started. Burke slipped to the canvas. A right uppercut dazed Burke and then a right caught Burke on the chin. Burke went down for a count of nine. He got up and was floored again. Burke's seconds threw in the towel taking defeat.

Versatile Punches

Russell Baxter, New Castle high school student, won as he pleased from George King of Freedom. The colerecra victor started well but his flash was short-lived. Baxter got a chance to practice an assortment of punches and played havoc with King's stomach in the last two rounds. They weigh 147.

Lester Leasure, another New Castle welterweight, won a decision from Vic Hall of Bridgewater. Leasure had the best of the fighting throughout. Time and again Hall tried Muddy Kurtz tactics but Leasure straight left and straight right could not be warded off.

Frankie Haught of Chester, W. Va., was a technical kayo victim of Rollin Horne, featherweight brother to Sonny. Haught was down for eight in the first. He beat the floor when he fell in the second. Rollin shot a right cross that dropped Frankie. Referee Sam Leyschock stopped the fight.

The Bud Sullivan, Pittsburgh vs. Bud Mooney, New Brighton, featherweight bout was crammed with action. Sullivan, a southpaw, towered over Bud Sullivan's hooks. Leasure slowed up Mooney in the last round. He was tired when the bell ended the fight. The decision was given Sullivan.

When Al Sayer of Chester, W. Va., hit Tony Puryear of Pittsburgh, in a 145 pound class fight on the chin in the second round he went down and his head struck the floor. What the punch would not have done the bump would. In the first Puryear was down for three seconds. The referee rightfully stopped the bout.

The crowd was one of the best of the shows staged recently. The Infantile Paralysis Prevention fund received 50 percent of the net receipts. The show was staged by the Jefferson A. C. with Tommy Leach matching the boys.

The curtain went up when Frank Cortez, of Niles and Walter Means of Pittsburgh, put on a hot fight at 120 pounds. There were plenty of swings and when the judges split on the decision Referee Leyschock awarded the bout to Cortez.

Juniata Next Home For Westminister

Will Play At New Wilmington On Saturday Night—Titans Are In East

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 11.—The Westminister Titan cagers, playing a three-game road-trip in Eastern Pennsylvania, will not return to the campus until Thursday of this week.

This coming Saturday, Feb. 15 the Titans play Juniata on the home-court.

Westminister's season record now stands at 11 won and one lost, and if the Titans can jump the Waynesburg and Geneva hurdles, have a good chance of completing the season without further mishaps.

While in the East, the Titans play West Chester, Millersville, and Juniata.

Section 20 Foes Battle Tonight

Three Crucial Frays Carded; Wampum Plays Host To Union Cagers

Section 20 opponents continue their nerve-wracking dash for honors tonight.

Five loop members are neck and neck going down the home stretch. A defeat can easily eliminate any one of the potential title winners. Tonight's results will alleviate the jangled championship picture.

East New Castle's representative, Shenango Township, which re-entered the picture by shading Wampum, plays at New Wilmington in one of the feature setto. The "Greyhounds" regained first place by tripping East Brook Friday night.

Determined to remain in the midst of the struggle for the coveted banner, Wampum High plays host to Union Township on Shelby floor. The game, booked for Bessemer court, should attract a capacity crowd. Bessemer has hit its stride and rates an excellent chance of snaring the pennant.

Mt. Jackson High takes on non-league competition, playing host to Princeton. The Mounties, however, play their most important clash of the season Wednesday night, swinging hoops with Wampum on Shelby floor.

Falcons-Saints Battle Tonight

Two stellar basketball games are listed for the popular Falcon hall tonight, it was announced by Eugene Kendra, business manager of the Falcons.

In the preliminary game the championship undefeated St. Michaels team of this city, leaders of the Slovak league in Youngstown, will tangle with the strong Republican club of Aliquippa. The Saints are undefeated so far this season, but face a tough quarter tonight.

The Saints will feature Johnny Carik, leading scorer in the Slovak league; Maki Budai, Walt Chabak, Balla, Dusan and Danish.

The Polish Falcons will battle the Ambridge Drags in the second game. The Ambridge team will feature Ted Grabinski, former Duquesne U center and a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers football team; Elmo Curtis, who was all-Catholic forward in a tourney last year in Chicago; Steve Yargin and five of the Mazie brothers.

OTT TO REPORT ON FEBRUARY 14

Mel Ott, veteran outfielder of the New York Giants, will start spring training earlier than usual. He'll report on February 14 instead of waiting for the remainder of the squad.

Titans Defeat West Chester

Westminister Begins Eastern Road Trip With 54 To 35 Win At West Chester

MILLERSVILLE TO BE MET TONIGHT

(Special To The News)

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Feb. 11.—Westminister College's towering band of Titan basketball players began their Eastern road trip here last night with an impressive 54 to 35 victory over the West Chester Teachers.

It was the eleventh win in 12 starts for the Westminister team. Stan Wazik, Joe Spak and Charley Ridi were the big scoring guns in the Titan triumph. The Westminister boys led 25 to 20 at the half. Miller was the best point-getter in the West Chester lineup.

Tonight the Westminister team will resume its Eastern invasion by meeting the Millersville Teachers at Millersville.

FROM ME TO YOU
By MESEALL

Here is a topic that we think you all will be interested in . . . New Castle's gesture of goodwill to the people of Newcastle on tynes, England . . . As an expression of goodwill to the people of Newcastle England, the Lawrence County Unit of the British War Relief Society is undertaking to raise $2,000 to furnish them with a mobil feeding kitchen, for use in feeding bombed civilians, evacuees, firemen, air raid wardens and others following periods of emergency. Newcastle England for which our city is named is an important port in Northern England with a population in excess of 283,000. They have already been subjected to much bombing and due to its importance in shipbuilding it is only logical to assume that they will be the target for many more of Hitler's bombing raids . . . Furnishing our sister city in England is a gesture of friendship on the part of our City, and is evidence that we in this country are not unmindful of what they are doing on the frontiers of freedom . . . the hardships they are enduring and of their unparalleled courage . . . Over 500 of these rolling kitchens have already been sent to England, Scotland and Wales by the British War Relief Society . . . The local organization has already raised over $700 for this purpose and a campaign is now underway to complete the required amount . . . On Thursday of this week the Lawrence County Unit and the North Side Units are combining in bringing to the city for public inspection a mobil kitchen . . . It will be parked in front of 209 E. Washington street from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. . . it will then be taken to Ellwood and Beaver Falls and then on to the boat for shipment to England . . . stop around Thursday morning and see this wonderful unit.

A dog that was on the lose has been taken and if anyone is interested in a fox terrier . . . contact 314 Elizabeth street or phone 692 . . . and for those who would like to have a thorough Eskimo Spitz call 3886-M . . . this dog is 1½ years old and house broken.

Don't forget or overlook the fact that Thursday and Friday of this week will be Dollar Days in New Castle . . . the local merchants have really some fine buys . . . read this paper and see a few of these buys . . . then have sister Jane come in Thursday or Friday and stay with the children while you take a day off to come down town for Dollar Days . . . be seeing you then.

Small Turnover In Stock Market

By LESLIE GOULD
(International News Service
Financial Writer)

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The stock market declined today on a small turnover. The domestic business situation and earnings reports were ignored as a price-making factor.

Steel shares were uniformly lower. Crucible slipped a point. Bethlehem and U. S. Steel showed moderate losses.

Rails were down fractionally. The coppers also lost ground.

There was some pressure on Texas Corp. In oils Standard of N. J. slipped also after a steady opening. Rubbers and building shares were off. Utilities were unchanged, fractionally lower. Mail orders were steady.

The London stock market was dull.
